

It consists of two main islands, Prickly Pear West and Prickly Pear East, and several small islands.

In the transition between the two main islands opens a stunning blue lagoon surrounded by beautiful corals and white sand.

Here you can dine in a typical bar-restaurant overlooking the beach, where fish and shellfish abound.

It is advisable to land on the side towards Anguilla and to reach the other side of the beach with a tender.

During the rental catamaran cruise in the Antilles and the sailboats vacation in the Caribbean you can do one of the most fascinating snorkelling as mentioned on the beach sign
