

It's located in the east of Goat Head Channel and it's a natural reserve among the coral reefes.

The sand of this beach is authentically pink, but it is necessary to approach with caution especially during the low tide.

The location is desert and no included in the tourist tours.